Swan Lake Loop Disaster Relief - 3-22-24

In its ongoing effort to address the health and safety needs of Tribal members impacted by the Swan Lake Loop Disaster, in particular Elders and families with young children, the Native Village of Kotzebue has initiated a distribution plan for free water and food staples.

Food & Water Distribution:

- Free water and food supplies
  - Distributed at 287 Lagoon Street, Kotzebue
  - Brown shop across the street from the KEA power plant
  - First come first served
- Hours
  - Friday, March 22, 1:30 pm to 6 pm
  - Saturday, March 23, 11 am to 6 pm
- Water
  - 4 cases per home
- Food staples
  - 80 cases lunch packs, limit 12 packs per home

Special thanks to our partner Food Bank of Alaska for donating much-needed food supplies, and Wal-Mart, AC, and other community members for their gracious donation of water all of which supports a healthy community.
